

POSING INVESTIGATIVE QUESTIONS – using the year 10 set of data cards.

I wonder what are typical heights of these year 10 students?	I wonder if where you were born affects where you want to go on holiday?
I wonder what are typical right foot lengths for the boys in this group?	I wonder who has the biggest armspan?
I wonder if girls have a longer right foot length than boys?	I wonder what is the most popular sport played?
I wonder if boys have greater armspans than girls?	I wonder what is the most favourite subject amongst year 10 students?
I wonder if there is a relationship between wrist circumference and neck circumference for these year 10 students?	I wonder if there are more girls that prefer to be famous than boys?
I wonder what are typical school bag weights for these year 10 students?	I wonder if right handed students prefer art subjects compared to left handed?
I wonder if boys tend to have a faster reaction time than girls for this group of students?	I wonder if boys have had their current phones for longer than girls?
I wonder what are the different regions that these students live in?	I wonder why most of the year 10 students prefer to be happy and rich and only six students want to be healthy and famous?
I wonder what are typical ways these students carry their bags to school?	I wonder if the boys in this group tend to have larger wrist circumferences than girls in this group?
I wonder what are typical neck circumferences for these students?	I wonder what are the different ways these students carry their bags to school?