Education and training in New Zealand

* Unemployed, or not in labour force

The proportion of Pacific peoples with a bachelor's degree or level 7 gualification

Post-school qualification field of study

For New Zealand adults aged 15 years and over who stated their field of study, by sex, 2013

The proportion of Selected ethnic groups<sup>1</sup> by highest qualification Māori with a bachelor's (grouped categories)<sup>2</sup>, 2006 and 2013 degree or level 7 qualification increased from 5.5 percent in 2006, No Level 1–4 Level 5–10 qualification certificate certificate 60% 50.4 50.3 47.2 46.3 41.7 40.7 Māori Pacific 33.3 peoples 29.9 29.6 European 20.1 16.3 MELAA* 13.4 12.1 12.0 Asian 0 2006 2006 2006 2013 2013 2013 * Middle Eastern/Latin American/African 1. Ethnic groups: People reporting more 2. Level 1-4 includes: Levels 1-4 than one ethnic group were counted in certificates, and overseas secondary each stated category. school qualifications. Level 5–10 includes: Levels 5 and 6 diplomas. bachelor's degree and level 7 qualification post-graduate and honours degrees, master's degree, and doctorate degree

This infographic uses results from the 2001, 2006, and 2013 Censuses. Percentages protect confidentiality.

exclude responses that cannot be classified (eg 'not stated' and 'response unidentifiable'). The regional maps show regional council areas. This data has been randomly rounded to

Source: Statistics New Zealand

Visit our website for more information

www.stats.govt.nz/census

Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 New Zealand

 $\odot$